Mansfield, PA. — Mansfield Destroyers announce Patrick Geshan as team broadcaster.

Patrick is a freshman at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, double-majoring in sports management and journalism. He's from Oxford, Ohio, and a recent graduate from Talawanda High School. Patrick began his sports broadcasting career in high school, where he hosted a daily sports segment at his school's television station, Brave TV. He continued that career at Miami U. of Ohio as the lead play-by-play voice of their men's basketball, baseball, football, and hockey broadcasts on their student radio station, RedHawk Radio. Patrick enjoys golfing, traveling, being outdoors, and cheering for Boston sports teams.

"The Mansfield Destroyers Organization is excited to have Patrick join the family. We are also excited to offer free video streaming for all home and away games this year. We are proud to have Patrick as the voice of the Destroyers for the 2020 season. Patrick has a lot of experience, and I know he will represent the Destroyers in a very positive and professional manner." commented Owner Don Lewis.

"I am absolutely thrilled to join the Destroyers organization and family, and can't wait to start an exciting season of baseball in Mansfield!" stated Patrick.

The Mansfield Destroyers 2020 Season is right around the corner. Season tickets are on sale now.
