Mansfield, PA. — The Mansfield Destroyers family is thrilled to have re-signed another returner from their 2019 inaugural season. John Wheeler, a 6'1 200-pound Sophomore catcher from Siena College. John is from Vatalie, NY and will be returning for the summer of 2020. Last summer John hit .279 for us with 11 RBI's and one home run in Genesee that Coach Hill labeled an absolute bomb.

"John has the best work ethic of anyone I have ever coached! He played very solid for us defensively, he calls a great game and is a tremendous blocker. It will be a huge plus to have his experience and leadership coming back to work with our pitching staff next summer. Love the kid!" stated Coach Hill.

"I am really looking forward to playing with the Destroyers again this summer. Last summer was a great experience, with the way we were welcomed and supported by the community. I'm very excited to have the opportunity to play for Coach Hill again. He is truly one of the best coaches I have ever had," commented John Wheeler.
